APWU POWER's Women's History Month Program

Conducted by Zoom

(Saturday, March 28, 2026)

You Are Invited: APWU POWER invites you to join its Women's History Month Program by Zoom, on Saturday, March 28, 2025. The program will start at 12:00 noon Eastern Standard Time and adjourn by 4:00 p.m.

Registration: Only APWU Members and Retired Dues Paying APWU Members are authorized to participate and registration is free. Once registered, participants will receive confirmation by email, along with a link to join the seminar by Zoom.

Focus: The program will focus on "APWU POWER's: Past, Present, and Future!" and will consist of three panel discussions. The first panel discussion is on APWU's Past, highlighting women who were there when APWU POWER started, discussing its history and explaining why it's still important today. The second panel discussion will cover women achieving leadership positions in APWU, highlighting women who were involved in APWU POWER, prior to being elected to their current leadership position. The third panel discussion will feature young activist, discussing APWU POWER's future and how to involve younger women.
