DDAL MEMBERS, FAMILY, & FRIENDS STAND WITH US POSTAL WORKERS

DDAL Brothers & Sisters,

Join us for a NATIONAL DAY of ACTION at the Southfield Post Office 22200 W. Eleven Mile Road, Southfield, MI 48037 from 1pm-3pm on Tuesday, July 28, 2026. We want everyone to know that U.S. IS NOT FOR SALE.

PROTECT OUR PUBLIC POST OFFICE

It belongs to all of us.

The United States Postal Service is one of America's most trusted public institutions. Every day, it delivers prescription medications, paychecks, ballots, packages, and letters to every home and business in the country—no matter where they are or how profitable the route may be.

Unlike private delivery companies, the Postal Service has a mission to serve every address, in every community. That's why protecting a strong, public Postal Service matters to all of us.

Today, our Postal Service faces serious challenges. To protect our national treasure, we demand:

1. Postal Leadership that supports Our Vision

Decisions made by Postal Service leadership shape everything from service standards to the future of your local post office. Americans deserve leaders who are committed to strengthening—not weakening—this essential public service.

2. Protect Vote-by-Mail

Millions of Americans—including veterans, seniors, rural residents, people with disabilities, and working families—depend on the Postal Service to safely and securely deliver their ballots.

3. A Financial Solution for Postal Finances

Outdated laws have left the Postal Service facing unnecessary financial strain, even though practical solutions are available.

What's at stake?

A strong Postal Service means:

- Reliable, affordable mail service for every community.
- Secure delivery of election mail and prescription medications.
- Support for small businesses and local economies.
- Good union jobs that strengthen communities.
- A public institution that serves people—not corporate profits.
